

The UCC is charged with reporting on whether the Curriculum Approval Guide (CAG) adequately details what information must be provided in course proposals. If it does not, the UCC shall propose timely measures to correct this. The Committee will report its findings and recommendations, if any, by the first Faculty Senate meeting in November 2024. The report is due to the Faculty Senate President one week prior to the first Faculty Senate meeting in November 2024.