

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, SALISBURY UNIVERSITY CAMPUS AT THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF MARYLAND AT HAGERSTOWN

The University System of Maryland at Hagerstown (USMH) is a regional higher education center located in downtown Hagerstown, Maryland that offers courses in educational programs leading to a degree. The Hagerstown Center Supports programs from six universities: Frostburg State University, Coppin State University, Salisbury University, Towson University, University of Maryland University College and University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

Under the USMH Memorandum of Understanding, Frostburg State University assumes the responsibility for preparing the Clery Statistical Report for all participating institutions at USMH. USMH crime statistics are obtained from the Hagerstown City Police Department and all participating institutions submit Judicial Referrals and Title IX incidents to Frostburg State University by September 1 of the reporting year. Frostburg State University compiles all reportable Clery information from USMH and shares the results with each contributing institution for inclusion on their Annual Security Report as a separate campus.

Crimes Statistics - The Jeanne Clery Act of 1990 requires that students and employees of the University System of Maryland Hagerstown (USMH) be informed of campus crime rates and of university policies relating to safety and security. This disclosure statement is in compliance with that act.

Police Services - The Hagerstown Department of Police is the primary response unit for any crimes which may occur in or near USMH. They may be reached at 911, 301-739-6000 (emergency) or 301-790-3700 (non-emergency). Police personnel of the Hagerstown Department of Police meet or exceed the training requirements of the Maryland Police Training Commission. They will provide initial response, as well as specialized follow-up. A sub-station of the Hagerstown Department of Police is located on the first floor of the USMH Center, on the west end of the building. It is staffed by members of the Downtown Patrol, although there is not an officer at present at all times. Crimes or offenses, including sex offenses, may also be reported to the director of the USMH at 240-527-2727.

Crime Awareness and Prevention Programs - Students and employees should take reasonable steps to promote their own safety. Crime advisories will be circulated to students, faculty and staff on an as-needed basis, based on the professional judgment of the USMH administrators, the Hagerstown Police, and/or the Frostburg State University Police. Crime prevention presentations can be arranged through the Hagerstown Police or the FSU University Police. For further information or to arrange a crime prevention presentation, contact Cynthia R. Smith, FSU Chief of Police at 301-687- 4223.

Timely Warnings - Timely Warnings are provided to give the University community notification of crimes that may present a threat to the campus community and to heighten safety awareness. An informed community is better prepared to ensure its own safety. Crime alerts may also ask for information that may lead to arrest and conviction of the offender.

In the event that a situation arises at USMH, or on adjacent public property, that, in the judgment of USMH administration and/or local police, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a “timely warning” will be issued by FSU University Police to the students, faculty and staff of USMH. Timely warnings will be issued in print form and posted conspicuously near building entrances. In addition, “timely warnings” are issued via E2Campus in both text and e-mail format, you are strongly encouraged to sign up for these alerts at www.frostburg.edu/computing/services/burg-alerts/

Facility Security and Access Policies - Physical security problems such as doors or windows that need adjustment should be reported to the Security Desk in the main lobby. USMH operational hours are from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Thursday. On occasion, classes extend to 11 p.m. Friday hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday classes are held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. There is a reception area that is staffed by a private security firm. Video surveillance of all entrances is conducted during operational hours.

Drug and Alcohol Policies and Programs - USMH does not condone possession, use or distribution of controlled substances or drug paraphernalia. Alcoholic beverages may only be possessed or consumed in a manner consistent with Maryland state law. Anyone in violation of Maryland state law with regard to either drugs or alcohol is subject to disciplinary action and possible arrest, fine or imprisonment. In addition to state restrictions on the possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages, USMH restrictions may apply as well. USMH alcohol and drug policies will be made available to all students and employees upon final approval. Drug or alcohol services are not offered directly by USMH. Local agencies should be consulted. The Washington County Health Department may be contacted at 301- 791-3314 for either drug or alcohol information, or for referral to other community resources.

Sex Offender Registry - The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act is designed to make campus communities aware of sex offenders in their midst, just as “Megan’s Law” does for non-campus, residential communities. In Maryland, a sex offender registry is maintained by the Department of Public Safety. It may be accessed at: <http://dpscs.maryland.gov/onlineservs/socem/default.shtml>. The linked page gives a full explanation of the use to which the sex offender registry can be put, as well as some cautionary advice.
