Toys Galore! Jessica Lindner and PALS members make the holidays brighter for local kids.

PALS member Jessica Lindner had an idea and a goal: to work with the Salvation Army to collect at least 100 new toys for needy children in the community to make their holidays a little happier. With the help of her PALS colleagues and several local business establishments, the drive exceeded expectations: over 240 new toys were collected and distributed!

Many thanks to sites that housed collection boxes: Cactus Taverna; Cherokee Lanes; Chili’s Grill & Bar; Cold Stone Creamery; D’Ann Danse Studios; Fit Physique Gym; Five Below; Kohl’s; Lombardi’s Pizza; Mid Shore Community Mediation Center; Pemberton Coffeehouse; Pohanka Collision Center of Salisbury; Runaway Bay Apartments; Shear Harmony Hair Salon; Subside Deli; Sub Runners; Texas Roadhouse; and Vernon Powell Shoe Co. A special thanks goes to Salisbury University!
