ShoreCorps/PALS Celebrates 20 Years of Service on Maryland’s Eastern Shore!

On Tuesday, March 10th, PALS hosted a 20th anniversary celebration at Salisbury University. Current members, staff, alumni, site supervisors, class presenters, SU personnel, and friends hailed the milestone with speeches, reflection, refreshments, and lots of shared memories. Dr. George Whitehead welcomed guests and introduced speakers, including SU’s President, Dr. Janet Dudley-Eshbach; Pat Schrawder and Carol Rose, aids to Del. Mary Beth Carozza; Grant Melville, Commissioner on the Governor’s Office on Service and Volunteerism; and fourth-year PALS member Cody Wehlan. Sen. James Mathias sent a resolution offering congratulations. PAC-14’s Creig Twilley created and shared a special commemorative video, featuring alumni and current members. Project Director Dr. George Whitehead, Program Coordinator Lynn Rising, and Administrative Assistant Sara Heim thank all who have provided excellent service in the community and supported PALS throughout the years.
