GUIDELINES FOR MASTER’S THESIS PREPARATION

Department of Biological Sciences
Richard A. Henson School of Science and Technology
Salisbury University
PARTS OF THE THESIS

Title Page

The title page of the thesis must include your full legal name, your department’s official name, the title of your work, a thesis submission statement, and the name of the degree you are seeking. Be sure to double-space all portions of your title page. Refer to Figure 1 as an example.

Month, day, and year submitted

Copyright Page

If you would like to copyright your thesis, the copyright page follows the title page. Include a statement of copyright, your full name, and the year centered above the bottom margin of the page and double-spaced. Refer to Figure 2 as an example.

For information about publishing and copyright see http://www.proquest.com/en-US/products/dissertations/submitted_authors.shtml
Signature Page

Your thesis must include a signature page with the original signatures of your committee members. That is, do not include a photocopy of the signature page with your thesis. Print out multiple blank copies of the signature page and have each copy signed so that each official copy of your thesis, the two kept in the library and the one or more kept by your department, include original signatures. Signature pages should be on the same cotton bond paper as the remainder of your thesis, should be double-spaced, and should follow the prescribed margins (see Page 5). Your advisor should sign the top line. Include the title of your thesis and your full name on the signature page. Refer to Figure 3 as an example.
Dedication

A dedication page is optional. If you choose to include one, it must be on its own page.

Acknowledgements

An acknowledgements page is optional. If you choose to include one, it must be on its own page.

Table of Contents

A table of contents is required. Place the table of contents immediately before the text of the thesis and any lists of illustrations, charts, etc. that you include (see below). Thesis may be written for submission to a journal or it may be written in Chapter format if more than one publication is expected. If written in Chapter format, include all chapter names and main subdivision names in the table of contents. Chapter titles are left-justified and page numbers are right-justified with a dot leader preceding them. Subdivision names should be indented. Make sure to be consistent in the numbering format for section titles used in the table of contents and that used in the text. For example, do not use Roman numerals for chapter titles in the table of contents and Arabic numerals in the text and do not write out numbers as words in the table of contents, but use an Arabic or Roman numeral in the text. Refer to Figure 4 as an example.

Lists of Illustrations

If you are including illustrations, you must include a list of them. Illustrations include pictures, photographs, tables, figures, charts, and graphs. Use a separate list for each type of illustration and format the list exactly as you would format the table of contents. Additionally, each list must be on a separate page.

Abstract

An abstract of your thesis is required. Your abstract should be brief (no more than one page) and double-spaced on its own separate page.

Text

The text of your thesis represents the body of your research. Be sure to cite quotations and ideas borrowed from others in a style that is appropriate to your discipline. Consult with your thesis advisor on the appropriate style for your thesis and be consistent in using that style throughout your work.

Appendices

Use an appendix or appendices to include materials that are not an integral part of the text, but that contribute examples or supporting evidence to your research. Include the appendix/appendices after the last page of the text and before the bibliography.

Bibliography/List of References/Works Cited

The style of the references within the text and in the Bibliography section may be formatted for a specific journal. This should be discussed with your thesis advisor prior to submission of your thesis to your advisory committee.
Vita
You may include a brief vita with your thesis. A vita tells the reader basic facts about your birth and your educational experience. If you choose to include a vita, it must be the last page of your thesis and be numbered. It must be written in the third person. That is, avoid the use of the pronoun “I”. Refer to Figure 5 for an example of a vita.

The author (your full name) was born in (city and state) on (date of birth, including the year). He/She attended (the name of your college/university) from 19xx to 19xx and received a Bachelor of Arts/Science in (your major/majors) in 19xx. He/She began work toward a Master of Science in Applied Biology at Salisbury University in the Fall/Spring/Summer of 20xx.

PHYSICAL FORMAT

Prepare your manuscript using a word processing program.

Paper

Use only one side of high-quality 25 percent or 100 percent cotton bond paper. Check the watermark on the paper to ensure that it is 25 percent or 100 percent cotton bond. Paper must be white and unlined and must be the standard 8-1/2” by 11” size.

Type Size, Font, and Print

Use a 10 or 12-point standard font such as Times New Roman, Helvetica, Geneva, Courier, or Palatino. Avoid using fancy fonts as they are difficult to read and are not appropriate for a thesis. Use the same font throughout the document. While illustrations may be in color, you should use only black type in your manuscript.

When printing your thesis, use a high quality ink jet or laser jet printer. Make sure the type is uniformly dark and crisp throughout the document. It is preferable that you print multiple copies of your thesis, but you may also take your manuscript to be professionally photocopied. Make sure that you request your thesis be photocopied on 25 or 100 percent cotton bond paper and not on regular photocopier paper. Do not photocopy your thesis yourself as that will lead to the thesis being on inappropriate paper and to poor copy quality.

 Corrections

The final draft of your thesis should represent a carefully proofread document and be free of grammatical and spelling errors. However, if you do need to make a correction to the final draft of your thesis, do not use correction fluid as it can flake away. Instead, make corrections directly to the manuscript.

Pagination

Number ALL pages of your manuscript with the exception of the title page, signature page, and the copyright page. Begin numbering the pages with the dedication page or the acknowledgements page (if included). Otherwise, begin numbering with the table of contents. All numbered pages preceding the text of your thesis should be numbered with lower case Roman numerals (i, ii, iii, …). The text of your thesis should be numbered with Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3, …). Check the style guide that your advisor approved to determine whether numbers should appear in the header or footer of the thesis and whether they should be centered or in the right corner of the page.

Spacing

Indent every paragraph and double-space your manuscript, including the title page and copyright page. Check your selected style guide to determine whether long quotations, footnotes, the table of contents, and the bibliography should be single-spaced or double-spaced. Do not add extra spaces between paragraphs or sections.

Margins

To facilitate binding, the left margin of your thesis must be 1-1/2”. The remaining margins should be 1-1/4”. Page numbers and illustrations must fit within the specified margins. If an illustration is too large to fit into the margins, reduce it so that it will fit.
Illustrations

Tables, figures, graphs, etc. must be numbered. Numeration can be consecutive (Table 1, Table 2, Table 3, etc.) or can be double numbers according to the placement of illustrations within specific chapters. For example, Table 5.1 would be the first table in chapter five of your thesis. High-quality photocopies of photographs are preferred to actual photographs. However, you may affix original photographs using paper cement. Photographs should be mounted on the same cotton bond paper that you are using throughout the thesis. All illustrations, including mounted photographs, must fit into the prescribed margins.

GUIDELINES FOR THESIS SUBMISSION TO THE LIBRARY

1. The thesis must have been read and accepted by the academic department as fulfilling the requirements for the degree. This is usually confirmed by the signature page accompanying the thesis.

2. The student must prepare three (3) print copies of the thesis to be submitted to the Library.

3. The student must review and complete the following documents: Copyright and Your Dissertation or Thesis, Open Access versus Traditional Publishing, ProQuest/UMI Publishing Agreement. [These documents have been attached.]

4. The student may use “Preparing Your Manuscript for Submission to ProQuest/UMI” has a guideline for formatting the paper if the academic department does not already have guidelines established.

5. The student must prepare an abstract for the thesis.

6. The cost for digitizing the thesis is paid by the Library. The student must submit payment [in the form of a check for $55 payable to ProQuest LLC] for the copyright registration if he/she elects to register the copyright.

7. The student must arrange to meet with the Serials Librarian to submit this documentation.

CHECKLIST

1. Is your thesis paginated correctly?
2. Did you use your full and official name on the title page, copyright page, signature page, and vita?
3. Are the titles on the title page, signature page, and abstract exactly the same?
4. Are your margins correct?
5. Is your signature page on cotton bond paper?
6. Did you submit the required copies of your thesis to your department?
7. Did you submit three copies of your thesis to the library?
