TABLE OF CONTENTS

Into the Wild: Discovering the Answers that Animals Hold ........................................ 3
Pub Night @ the Library ..................................................................................................... 8
Promoting Mutual Understanding: SU’s Fulbright Scholars Legacy .............................. 9
Painting a Brighter Picture of Research Across the Liberal Arts ................................ 13
After the Storm: Students Take the Lead in Sandy Damage Assessment .................... 15
Protecting Vulnerable Children: The Title IV-E Education for Public Child Welfare Program .............................................................. 17
STAND4YOU: Raising Awareness and Promoting Treatment .................................. 18
Connecting the Business Community with the University: The Maryland Small Business and Technology Development Center .............................................. 19
External Grants Critical to SU’s STEM Programs ..................................................... 21
Checking In: Doctor of Nursing Practice Year One .................................................... 23
Faculty Mini-Grant Program ....................................................................................... 25
The SU Foundation: 40 Years of Academic Support .................................................. 28
Graduate RAP Grant Program .................................................................................... 29
Faculty Books ............................................................................................................. 30
A Banner Year for Student Research ........................................................................ 31
SUSRC 2013 & NCUR 2013 ....................................................................................... 33

There is less to say by Jinchul Kim. Read about Kim’s work on page 13.