Copyright Permission Form for Student Projects, Papers and Notes

U.S. Copyright Law provides copyright protection for any work by an author, including student authors; students own the copyright to their projects, papers and notes. Any faculty member who would like to post a student’s paper or project on e-reserve or physical reserve or make the paper otherwise available to a class and/or the public via restricted access or a web link must therefore secure written permission from the student author prior to making the work available.

I, __________________________________________________________________________
(Print full name)

________________________________________________________________________
(Print permanent address: Street, City, State, Zip)

grant permission to post a link to my project, paper or notes from the Salisbury University website or to make the work available for check out via physical course reserves. I understand that physical reserves may or may not be restricted and electronic reserves may or may not be password protected and that if it is not password protected anybody with access to the Internet may access and view the work via the Salisbury University website. The work for which I grant permission is titled:

________________________________________________________________________

I grant permission to make the above work available to the community from _______ (start date) to ________ (end date). (If permission is granted indefinitely, write “ongoing” for the end date).

Name (Print) ______________________________________________ (Student)
Signed: ____________________________ (Student)
Date: ______________

Name (Print) ______________________________________________ (Instructor)
Signed: ____________________________ (Instructor)
Date: ______________