CONDUCTOR LEE KNIER conducts the Salisbury Pops Concert Band at Salisbury University and teaches courses in music and applied brass lessons. A graduate of both Temple and Arcadia universities, he earned degrees in music education and performance with concentrations in trombone and conducting. He also has served as interim conductor of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra, assistant conductor of the New Jersey Youth Symphony Orchestra and assistant director of bands at Temple University. Formerly a trombonist with St. Peter-by-the-Sea Orchestra, he is currently principal trombone with the Mid-Atlantic Symphony Orchestra. He has also performed regularly with the Metro Lyric Opera Orchestra, Garden State Philharmonic, Main Line Symphony, Brookdale Big Band, Tex Benecke and the Modernaires, and the Steel Pier Show Band. He has toured with the Nelson Riddle Orchestra and the Glenn Miller Orchestra directed by Buddy DeFranco. Knier lives in Salisbury with his wife Veronica and their son Chris.
MUSICIAN BIOGRAPHIES

TRUMPETER BRIAN MAHONEY is a senior music education major at Salisbury University where he studied trumpet with Lee Knier. He has also studied trumpet with Professor Richard Adams at Bridgewater College and Dr. Alan Hamant at University of Delaware. He is also a member of the SU Jazz Band and is presently completing his teaching internship at Wicomico County Schools. He plans to graduate this May.

CLARINETIST SCOTT BUNTING is a junior music education major at Salisbury University. A student of Professor Amy Sterling, he has performed with almost every music ensemble offered at Salisbury University including the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra. Bunting has also organized and directed the SU Pep Band for the past three years. In summer 2007 he attended the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp in Michigan where he served as a counselor and studied clarinet.

TENOR ROBERT SLANGEN is a senior vocal performance major at Salisbury University. He has studied opera at the University of Dayton, Salisbury University and he participated in the Centro Studi Italiani Opera Festival in Urbania, Italy, during summer 2008. A student of Professor John Wesley Wright, he has performed in productions of Purcell’s Dido and Aeneas, Puccini’s Madame Butterfly and Saint-Saëns’ Samson et Dalila.
