A Christmas Sing-Along

O Come, All Ye Faithful, Joyful and Triumphant,
O Come Ye, O Come Ye to Bethlehem.
Come and Behold Him, Born the King of Angels.
O Come let us adore Him, O Come let us adore Him, O Come let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord!

Hark, the Herald Angels sing, Glory to the Newborn King.
Peace on Earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful all ye nations rise. Join the triumph of the skies. With Angelic hosts proclaim, Christ is born in Bethlehem. Hark, the Herald Angels sing, Glory to the New Born King!

Angels we have heard on High. Sweetly Singing o’er the plains.
And the mountains in reply, echoing their joyous strains.
Glo - - - ri - a, in excelsis De - o. Glo - - ri – a, in excelsis De – o.

Joy to the World the Lord is come. Let Earth receive Her King.
Let every heart prepare Him room, and heav’n and nature sing,
and heav’n and nature sing,
And heav’n and heav’n and nature sing!

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright.
Round yon virgin mother and child, holy infant so tender and mild.
Sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

SQUAWKAPPELLA
Squawkappella is a Salisbury University’s student-run a cappella choir. It originated as a student organization by music students who wanted to develop their own vocal ensemble and it continues to enjoy success due to the efforts of many talented students who join to nurture this tradition. They arrange their own music, direct their own rehearsals, raise money and produce their own performances and concerts on and off campus each semester.

LEE KNIER
Conductor Lee Knier directs the Concert Band at Salisbury University and teaches courses in music and applied brass lessons. A graduate of both Temple and Arcadia universities, he earned degrees in music education and performance with concentrations in trombone and conducting. He has served as interim conductor of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra, assistant conductor of the New Jersey Youth Orchestra and assistant director of bands at Temple University. Formerly a trombonist with St. Peter-by-the-Sea Orchestra, he is currently principal trombone with the Mid-Atlantic Symphony Orchestra. He has performed regularly with the Metro Lyric Opera Orchestra, Garden State Philharmonic, Brookdale Big Band, Tex Benecke and the Modernaires. He has toured with the Nelson Riddle Orchestra and the Glenn Miller Orchestra directed by Buddy DeFranco. Knier lives in Salisbury with his wife Veronica, a pianist, and their son.

AMY MORGAN
Amy Morgan studies with Dr. Linda Cockey at Salisbury University where she is majoring in piano performance. Upon graduating, she will be working with the Wye Operetta Workshop and teaching at the Wye Conservatory of Music in Wye Mills, MD.

ALLISON BEWLEY
Allison Bewley is a senior music education major at Salisbury University where she studies with Professor John Wesley Wright. She began singing in choruses at the tender age of six and discovered her love of music education during her high school years while observing her school choral director and role model. She has performed actively throughout her high school and college years including productions of Dido and Aeneas, Elijah and Topsy-Turvy Ties. Upon graduating she hopes to teach music and purse an advanced degree.
TERRON QUAILES
Terror Quailes, bass-baritone, is a graduate of Easton High School in Easton, MD. He is currently completing course work toward a bachelor’s degree in vocal performance at Salisbury University where he studies with Professor John Wesley Wright. An active performer he has performed numerous and varied roles in classical music settings, Broadway shows and spirituals. He was invited to participate in the 2010 Edinburgh Festival Fringe in Edinburgh, Scotland. He is also a first place winner of the 2010 MD-DC NATS Student Auditions (Junior/Senior Men’s Musical Theater Category) where he subsequently was awarded third prize at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Competition. He also placed second at the state level in the Men’s (Junior/Senior) Classical Music category. Terron is a member of Seedtime and Harvest Prophetic Church in Preston, MD, where he also serves as minister of music. Upon graduating he hopes to teach in his community and pursue a career in vocal performance.

Celebrating A Decade of Distinction
The Department of Music congratulates Dr. Janet Dudley-Eshbach on her 10th anniversary as President of Salisbury University. In the last 10 years, music performance on our campus has blossomed. Thank you, President Dudley-Eshbach, for championing excellence in music programming for our University and for our community.
