Biographical History: Edward Jones was born in 1961 in Washington, D.C. and received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science in 1984 and a Master of Arts in History in 1989 at Salisbury University. While Mr. Jones was earning his degrees he worked as Sergeant for the Salisbury University Police Department, ultimately retiring in 2012. Simultaneously, Mr. Jones taught in the History and Political Science Departments at Salisbury University teaching a variety of coursework including World Civilization, United States History and Introduction to Political Science.

Scope and Content Note: Edward Jones papers document Dr. Jones’ research into the Somerset and Worcester County, Maryland inventories of slaves and indentured servants that utilized court record abstracts, the Maryland Prerogative Inventory and the Maryland Calendar of Wills. Also of note, are a series of research papers written by Salisbury University students on their insight into the use of primary sources which include the inventories of the Ennis, Bishop and Outten families. The materials date from 1992 to 1998 with the bulk of the materials dating from 1994-1995.
