Administrative History: The Diocese of Easton comprises of the entire Eastern Shore of Maryland, which contains nine counties and over 4,000 square miles. The Diocese was established in 1868 and is made up of 38 worshipping communities of nearly 10,000 members, served by 70 clergy and is separated into three convocations, the Northern, Middle and Southern Convocations.

Scope and Content Note: Diocese of Easton records document the history of the Diocese of Easton, specifically St. Paul’s Parish in Centreville, Maryland and the Bridgetown United Methodist Church near Ridgley, Maryland on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. The materials date from 1924-2003 with the bulk of the material dating from history of the churches, 1989-1993. The history of the Diocese of Easton is documented in printed histories, maps and newspaper clippings.
Folders are listed by their location in each box; any given subject may be dispersed throughout the entirety of the collection.
