

lectures

Researching African-American Family History Workshop

Saturday, January 17
Nabb Research Center,
9 a.m.-3 p.m.

Dr. Clara Small, SU History Department, presents a workshop focusing on the unique challenges for African-American genealogists doing family history using primary source material. Charge for the workshop is $40. Call 410-543-6312 to register.

Werner

President Of The Population Institute Werner Fornos

Monday, February 2
Holloway Hall Auditorium, 7 p.m.

Fornos, winner of the 2003 United Nations Population Award, has been president of the Population Institute since 1982. He has been in the forefront of the struggle to balance the world's population with the world's resources for more than 30 years.

Gov. Douglas Wilder

Gov. Douglas Wilder

Wednesday, February 4
Holloway Hall Auditorium, 7 p.m.

When former Virginia Governor Douglas Wilder took office in 1990, he made U.S. history as the first elected African-American governor. Wilder's victory is made notable by the fact that four out of five of his supporters were white in a state that once denied him admission to its law school. Since leaving the governor's mansion, he lectures nationwide and serves at the Virginia Commonwealth University Center for Public Policy.

Researching Family Genealogy Workshop

Saturday, February 7
Nabb Research Center, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

Dr. Ray Thompson, SU History Department, focuses on Delmarva families with general information about genealogical researching.

Cost of attending the workshop is $40. Call 410-543-6312 to register.

The Evolution Of The Ward Museum

A Lecture Series

Wednesday, February 11, 2 p.m.

Wednesday, March 10, 2 p.m.

Wednesday, April 7, 2 p.m.

Education Room, Ward Museum

Dan Brown, a founder and former curator of the Ward Museum, talks about the evolution of the Ward Museum, the Ward World

Carver
Steve Ward

Dan Storper

Competition and early decoy carvers. Guest speakers and guest carvers will be on hand to share their knowledge.

Putumayo World Music Founder

Dan Storper, The Musical Nomad Date to be announced Wicomico Room, 7 p.m.

When Storper began the Putumayo World Music label in 1993, world music was limited in distribution and general visibility in the U.S. Since that time, world music is heard almost daily in commercials, soundtracks and in its influences on pop music. Storper's efforts to share this music have resulted in an independent label that has put out more than 100 CDs chronicling music from all areas of the world.

NOAA Scientist Thomas Wrublewski

Thursday, February 26 Wicomico Room, 7 p.m.

Serving as a physical scientist with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) since 1980, Wrublewski

Next Generation Space Telescope

has worked on such projects as operational monitoring of Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellites (GOES) and Polar-orbiting Operational Environmental Satellites (POES).

NASA Next Generation Space Telescope

Tuesday, March 16 Holloway Hall Auditorium, 7 p.m.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration Deputy Special Project Scientist Jonathan P. Gardner discusses the James Webb Space Telescope Project (JWST). Peering farther than the Hubble Telescope, the JWST will push the cosmological envelope, letting astronomers delve deeper and further to better understand the origins of the Universe.

Perdue School Breakfast

With Federal Reserve Bank President Alfred Broaddus

Friday, April 16 Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay

NOAA Scientist Shares His World View

Golf Resort, Cambridge, MD, 7:30 a.m.

The Perdue School of Business continues its longstanding tradition of bringing business leaders to the Shore when it welcomes J. Alfred Broaddus Jr., president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. Call 410-543-6316 for registration information.

If This Place Could Talk

Researching The History Of An Old House

Research Your "Old House"

Tuesday, May 4

Check out our latest additions or find in-depth info online at www.salisbury.edu