THE MARYLAND COASTAL BAYS PROGRAM

IS LOOKING FOR PUBLIC INPUT ON
MARYLAND'S COASTAL BAYS' AQUATIC SENSITIVE AREAS

BALANCING ECONOMIC, RECREATIONAL AND RESOURCE NEEDS

WHY?

Does the presence of too many boats and personal watercraft in sensitive areas pose risks to the natural resources so valuable to the local economy and residents' quality of life?

Local, state and federal scientists have identified sensitive aquatic resources for our area. The Maryland Coastal Bays Program is asking the community to help determine the appropriate measures to reduce the risk of impacts to sensitive areas; develop protective measures; and educate residents, tourists and policy makers about local needs.
