Sammy Flies Proud

For a brief shining moment in summer 2008, Sammy the Sea Gull flew proudly above the American Embassy in Iraq. Soon-to-be member of the Class of 2009 Julius Blattner, one of many brave SU alums stationed abroad, honored his Alma Mater by having a Sammy flag flown above the embassy. Upon his safe return to U.S. soil, he presented the flag along with a certificate of authenticity to Dr. Rosemary Thomas, vice president of University Advancement, and Jason Curtin '98, director of alumni relations and annual giving, in the Alumni Garden. The flag and certificate have been proudly displayed in the Holloway Hall display case ever since. They serve as a reminder that so many of our alums have gone on to serve their country and that they carry SU in their hearts.

Carve A Memory Into The Alumni Garden

The Miller Alumni Garden fountain is surrounded by a brick walkway where you may purchase a 4" x 8" brick to be inscribed for yourself or in honor or memory of a classmate, faculty member, club, team, family member or any other important person or event in your life. Cost is $100 per brick.

Megan McCray '96 has purchased six bricks that have been placed in the garden. "I buy a brick each year to commemorate our wedding anniversary. It seems appropriate since SU is where we met. It is nice to give back to the place where we started our lives together." Megan is married to David Ferrera '98.

For more information, call or e-mail the Alumni Office or order online at <http://alumni.salisbury.edu> through the "Annual Giving" link.
