Information on Salisbury University: Directions

Salisbury University is located on a lovely 140-acre campus in the city of Salisbury in Wicomico County on Maryland's beautiful Eastern Shore, a part of the Delmarva Peninsula. SU is part of the University System of Maryland.

Salisbury has a metropolitan population of 70,000. Some 7,000 students are enrolled in SU.

The city of Salisbury lies 30 miles west of the resorts at Ocean City, MD, and the Assateague Island National Seashore. Salisbury is 115 miles southeast of Baltimore and Washington, D.C. The city is 125 miles south of Philadelphia and 125 miles north of Norfolk, VA.

Salisbury is at the conjunction of east-west U.S. Route 50 and north-south U.S. Route 13. Salisbury University is positioned on U.S. Route 13 at the southern edge of the city of Salisbury.

Flying to Salisbury

It is possible to fly all the way here, landing at the Salisbury-Wicomico County Regional Airport (SBY), or you may fly into Baltimore, Washington or Philadelphia and rent a car. Ask your travel agent!

Driving to Salisbury

From the west: U.S. Business Route 50 passes west-east through Salisbury. As Route 50 passes through the center of Salisbury, eastbound travelers will want to turn south on U.S. Business Route 13 toward Salisbury University. We are about two hours east of the Chesapeake Bay bridge at Annapolis, MD.

From the north/south: U.S. Business Route 13 passes north-south through Salisbury. In fact, it touches the eastern edge of the Salisbury University campus. We are less than three hours south of Philadelphia and north of Norfolk.

From the east: Take U.S. Business Route 50 west to Salisbury. In Salisbury, follow the signs to campus.

Traveling in Salisbury to the SU campus: Salisbury surrounds the junction of east-west U.S. Business Route 50 and north-south U.S. Business Route 13. From the intersection of those two major highways, follow Business Route 13 south to Salisbury University, located on the south side of town. (Business Route 13 south is also known as Salisbury Blvd.) Travel southbound on Business Route 13 to the College Avenue stoplight and turn right to proceed west on College Avenue. Drive west along College Avenue. At the first traffic signal, turn left onto southbound Camden Avenue. Turn right onto Loblolly Lane. The Carriage House is located just behind the SU Admissions House.
