

AUDITION NOTICE

Wanted: Three Rich Husbands
 Three Young Wives
 Three Randy Gentlemen
 And a half dozen other unsavory and scheming characters

For: The London Cuckolds

The Bobbi Biron Theatre announces auditions for ‘The London Cuckolds’ to be held December 6 & 7 from 7-9pm in the Black Box Theatre in Fulton Hall. Rehearsals begin January 24th for a late February opening. The auditions are open to the public as older male actors are needed for the three husbands. All students are encouraged to participate.

In Edward Ravenscroft’s raunchy, witty and ribald play, three husbands each claim that they have hit upon the most effective method of keeping a wife virtuous: the first relies on innocence, the second on wit and the third on piety. But three lusty rogues are out to prove them wrong. What the winsome wives do to their hapless husbands and brainless beaux has to be seen to be believed.

This fast-paced, bedroom farce is directed by Artistic Director, Dr. T. Paul Pfeiffer. Dr. Pfeiffer’s most recent productions have been, ‘Much Ado About Nothing,’ ‘Oleanna,’ and his own adaptation of Henry Fielding’s ‘Joseph Andrews.’ His adaptation of ‘A Christmas Carol’ is currently in performance.
