Dr. Alexander Pope!

Born and raised in Austin, Texas, Alexander “Sandy” Pope IV is an Assistant professor in the Department of Education Specialties and social studies program coordinator at Salisbury University. He teaches courses in social studies education, research methods, diversity, and civic engagement. He serves as the Co-Director of the Institute for Public Affairs and Civic Engagement and of the Maryland Holocaust Educators Network. He serves on the board of the Maryland Council for the Social Studies. He is also the counselor for the SU chapter of Kappa Delta Pi – international honor society in education.

Before coming to SU, Sandy was an AmeriCorps Fellow in New York City for three years. He worked on two main projects. Reading and Math Buddies offered interventions for elementary students in Harlem. The Harlem AIDS Blanket used creative arts to raise awareness about the continuing AIDS epidemic in upper Manhattan. Sandy completed the B.A. in History/Philosophy at The Colorado College; the M.A. in History and in Curriculum & Instruction at Texas State – San Marcos; and the Ph.D. in social studies education at Teachers College, Columbia University. He is mostly interested in the attitudes people develop towards and actions they take in their communities.

He loves to spend time walking and talking with his wonderful wife Kat, inspiring daughter Theodora-Sue, and rollicking son Alexander Pope V.

Keep up to date with all our events and program needs. Become our fan at United Way’s new volunteer outreach site:
