AlcoholEdu for College® 2014-2015

About the Course

Salisbury University is one of hundreds of institutions nationwide requiring every member of their first-year class to complete AlcoholEdu – a non-opinionated, science-based course taken by hundreds of thousands of students each year. Whether or not you drink, AlcoholEdu empowers students to make well-informed decisions and provides some simple strategies to help keep you and your friends safe.

All Students MUST Complete Part II (the Final Exam) by Monday October 20, 2014.

To fulfill Salisbury University’s requirement, you must achieve the following:

• Complete Part II (approx. 15 minutes) by Monday October 20, 2014
• Complete Part II with a 75% or higher

Why AlcoholEdu for College?

Surveys* from more than 200,000 students who completed AlcoholEdu for College showed the impact of the program.

After taking the course:
• 75% said AlcoholEdu provided them with helpful information
• 66% said it helped them learn new facts about alcohol
• 77% reported AlcoholEdu prepared them to identify the signs of alcohol poisoning
• 64% said the information presented about BAC would help guide them in creating a plan for making safe and healthy decisions

As an incentive, participants will be entered to win an Apple iPad following full completion of AlcoholEdu.
