Welcome to the diverse Charles R. and Martha N. Fulton School of Liberal Arts that plays a vital role in the academic experience of nearly every Salisbury University student as home to the visual and performing arts, the humanities and the social sciences. The Fulton School is the largest academic unit at Salisbury University for number of programs, students and faculty. The Fulton School teaches the most student credit hours, awards the highest percentage of degrees and supports almost half of all minors.

Twelve academic departments make up the Fulton School, supporting undergraduate programs and three graduate programs in the arts, humanities and social sciences:

Art
Communication Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution
English
Environmental Studies
History
Modern Languages and Intercultural Studies
Music, Theatre and Dance
Philosophy
Political Science
Psychology
Sociology

In addition, our Institute for Public Affairs and Civic Engagement (PACE) plays a major role in carrying out the University's mission to foster engaged citizenship, while our SU Art Galleries support strong connections between the visual arts and all our academic programs, listed on the back side of this sheet.

Our four-credit course model supports in-depth classroom learning, combined with high impact practices such as undergraduate research, internships and community engagement. We also support a range of study abroad opportunities, including shorter global seminars and summer- and semester-long experiences, that span the globe. Learn more at the Fulton School's For Students site.

The Fulton School's public programming serves both the campus and wider community, reflecting the global diversity of cultures that we explore and celebrate. Regular offerings include the Adventures in Ideas Humanities Series, Fulton Faculty Colloquium, Interdisciplinary Lecture Series and Public Humanities Programs. Both on and off campus, Fulton supports exhibitions and performances throughout the year in the visual and performing arts. For learners of all ages, Fulton supports the Summer Enrichment Academies and PRESTO music and theatre lessons. State-of-the-art facilities support creative activity in music, television, graphic design, drawing, painting, photography and printmaking, glass, ceramics, and sculpture. Fulton's social science programs lead local community-based research initiatives. View the school's community and extracurricular programs at the For the Community site.

To see Fulton School programs in action, please visit the Video and Media site or schedule a tour on campus. If we may look forward to you joining the Fulton family, welcome home!
