Jesse Colvin for Congress seeks Interns

Democratic congressional candidate for MD-01 seeks interns to assist the Finance Director and Campaign Manager with achieving mission-critical goals, and will become acquainted with the core principles of political outreach.

Internship schedules are flexible, but require a 12-15 hour weekly time commitment, including some evenings and weekends. Interns will report to the Finance Director and will work remotely with the exception of political events and fundraisers.

This internship is available to students currently attending a college or university in the state of Maryland, ideally with strong ties to Maryland’s First congressional district.

Qualifications:

• Service-minded: We are a team of people who believe in the value of service.
• A good sense of humor and a “can-do” attitude.
• Attention to detail;
• Willing to work flexible hours (including some evenings and weekends);
• Ability to communicate clearly;
• Familiarity with Democratic political campaigns and grassroots organizing preferred;
• Strong affinity for adorable rescue dogs and newborn babies.

Examples of duties include but are not limited to:

• Provide general support to the Finance Director and Volunteer Outreach Director, compiling briefings for political events and meetings.
• Assist the Finance Director with call time preparation including call sheets and follow up.
  Assist in the preparation of thank you notes, and other mailings;
• Complete research on current and prospective donors;
  Assist in the preparation of and staff events;
Applicants should submit a resume, writing sample, and 1-2 paragraphs detailing their interest in this position to allie@jessecolvin.com
