

Make Tomorrow Yours

Become the Leader

The image features a red banner on the left side with the text 'Become the Leader' in white. The background is a photograph of a brick building with scaffolding. A person is walking in the foreground, blurred to suggest motion. The overall theme is leadership and achievement.

You've always been one to set your sights a little higher.

Reach a little farther. Strive to achieve a little more.

Nowhere is this more true than in your educational and career goals. By pursuing a graduate degree, you'll position yourself to reach unlimited heights and be the leader in your field that tomorrow needs.

And by doing it at Salisbury University, you'll gain an even higher level of preparation through programs that are respected nationwide, distinctive opportunities for research and other hands-on scholarly activities, mentorship from accomplished faculty experts, and a welcoming spirit of support and collaboration.

Tomorrow Needs

*“We are here to serve the SU community.
Our goal is to empower and enable faculty, staff and students by providing support that ensures greatness.”*

Dr. Clifton P. Griffin
Dean of Graduate Studies and Research

Convenience

The Master of Social Work Program is offered fully online as well as at four additional convenient locations across Maryland.

College of Health & Human Services

Few callings in life are more meaningful than helping people live healthier, happier lives. That, more than anything, is at the heart of our graduate programs in the College of Health and Human Services (CHHS).

As a student in any of these programs, you'll be empowered by a rigorous academic setting, a diverse learning environment and a wealth of opportunities for meaningful research, implementation of evidence-based practice and collaboration.

This is why our graduates succeed at the highest levels, from addressing shortages of nurse leaders, practitioners and educators, to implementing groundbreaking new exercise approaches for cancer patients, to engaging as social work professionals across a wide range of settings regionally and beyond.

Enduring Values

The values that drive CHHS are to be ethical, inclusive, exceptional, collaborative and engaged.

#1

INDUSTRY WITH MOST JOBS ADDED

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics projects that health care will add the most jobs of any industry in the coming years.

Make
Tomorrow
Your
Today

“I love this master’s program so much. I’ve gotten so much out of it. I am now pursuing my dream career in cardiac rehabilitation. Every day, I get better because of this program.”

Erika Huffman
Class of 2019

M.S. in Health and Human
Performance

Programs of Study

- Health and Human Performance (M.S.)
- Nursing (M.S.N.)*
- Social Work (M.S.W.)*
- Nursing (D.N.P.)*
- Family Nurse Practitioner (Certificate of Advanced Study)*
- Health Care Management (Post-Baccalaureate Certificate)*

* Available online

Make
Tomorrow
Your
Today

“SU’s History Program has helped me get a broader and deeper content-based knowledge of history. I got to dive deeper into materials and deeper into topics. Salisbury definitely gave me preparation I wouldn’t get at a lot of other places, with the Nabb Center and how close we are to everything to get hands-on with the material.”

Emily Sperling
Class of 2018
M.A. in History

Programs of Study

- Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution (M.A.)
- English (M.A.)
- History (M.A.)
- Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) (Post-Baccalaureate Certificate)

Partnerships

The M.A. in Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution Program has partnered with SU's Bosserman Center for Conflict Resolution, a U.N. Regional Centre of Expertise, to provide students with practical field and research experiences.

Fulton School of Liberal Arts

There's a reason advanced study in the core disciplines of the liberal arts attracts among the highest numbers of graduate students - it delivers perspective, depth, critical thinking and a wealth of career options.

As a student in any of the Fulton School of Liberal Arts' graduate offerings, you'll have access to exceptional resources, personalized mentorship from expert faculty and a multicultural learning environment that further enriches the overall experience.

You'll find graduates of the Fulton School in impressive positions everywhere from the United Nations, to the New York Peace Institute, to the Smithsonian Institution and Library of Congress.

Hands On History

Salisbury's Nabb Research Center for Delmarva History and Culture enables students to access unique artifacts, books and rare archival materials both printed and manuscript.

3

UNIQUE ENGLISH PROGRAM TRACKS

The M.A. in English program offers three unique tracks – Composition and Rhetoric, Literature, and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL).

A Supportive, Opportunity-Rich Graduate School Experience

Elite Employers

You'll find our graduates serving as school superintendents and at places like Johns Hopkins Hospital, Library of Congress, National Institutes of Health, and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, among others.

Legendary Legacy

Dr. Arun Gandhi, a Scholar in Residence in the Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution Program, is the grandson of the iconic leader and apostle of peace Mahatma Gandhi.

Fully Online

Several of our graduate programs can be completed 100% online.

75% Discount

SU's Good Neighbor Graduate Scholarship provides up to a 75% discount on the difference between resident and non-resident tuition for on-campus programs for qualifying students from certain neighboring Mid-Atlantic states.

Make
Tomorrow
Your
Today

“To go from starting the Online M.B.A. Program in 2015 to having it ranked one of the top programs in the nation two years later is a very big honor.”

Christy Weer, Ph.D.
Dean

Perdue School of Business

“Salisbury University’s faculty are truly unique. They have dedicated their lives to this mission of teaching our students and it makes a huge difference in the outcomes for our students.”

Michael Scott, Ph.D.
Dean

Henson School of Science and Technology

Make
Tomorrow
Your
Today

“Faculty are really great about supporting students in networking or professional development.”

Marissa Moran

Class of 2018

M.S. in Applied Biology

“The cooperative project in GIS Management is the secret to our success. Most of our students are working, so it benefits their organizations.”

Art Lembo, Ph.D.

Faculty, Geography and Geosciences Department

Programs of Study

- Applied Biology (M.S.)
- Geographic Information Systems Management (M.S.)*
- Mathematics Education (M.S.M.E.)

Available online*

Recognized for Excellence

The M.S. in Geographic Systems Management Program has been awarded the American Association of Geographers Award for Program Excellence.

Henson School of Science & Technology

Graduate students in the Henson School of Science and Technology are at the forefront of scholarship and practice.

As part of their programs, you'll gain personalized mentorship and collaborate with such organizations as the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and the Maryland Department of Natural Resources, among others.

Perdue School of Business

Business today is dynamic, globally interconnected and fueled by ever-increasing advances in technology. This is exactly the world that students in the Perdue School of Business are prepared to thrive in.

The Perdue School offers graduate students an M.B.A. Program that's accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, flexible and designed to empower them with the skills to succeed as organizational leaders.

Make
Tomorrow
Yours

“The rigor and the challenge the M.B.A. offers is really exciting because it forces you to always step up and be at your best at all times.”

Sara Jane Campbell
Class of 2018
M.B.A.

Proud and Proven

The M.B.A. Program has been recognized as a Top Online M.B.A. Program by U.S. News & World Report for six consecutive years.

Program of Study

- Business Administration (M.B.A.)*

Available online*

Seidel School of Education

Educating K-12 and college students and providing quality leadership at school, district and higher education levels are among the most impactful professions in society today.

When you pursue your graduate degree in the Seidel School of Education, you'll be at the cutting edge of school improvement and advancing the effectiveness of teaching and learning.

Your experience will be characterized by a sharp focus on navigating current issues in education, how to effectively bridge research and practice, and expanding your pedagogical and educational leadership skills.

Leaders Who Excel

Six of nine Eastern Shore school superintendents are graduates of Seidel School programs.

50+

TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

Over 50 graduates of Seidel School programs have been recognized as Teacher of the Year in the past decade.

Nationally Renowned

The Reading Specialist M.Ed. Program has earned national recognition from the International Literacy Association for its preparation of reading professionals.

“I felt like I got a well-rounded experience because I learned something in class on Wednesday and put into action when I went into work on Friday. I think that is one thing that’s unique about Salisbury, it gives you that well-rounded experience and the kind of knowledge that can be applied immediately.”

Savrae Garnett

Class of 2018

M.Ed. Post-Secondary
Higher Education

Programs of Study

- Curriculum and Instruction (M.Ed.)
- Curriculum and Instruction - Higher Education Leadership (M.Ed.)
- Educational Leadership (M.Ed.)
- Reading Specialist (M.Ed.)
- Teaching (M.A.T.)
- Literacy Studies (Ed.D.)*
- Educational Leadership (Post-Master Certificates)

* Available online

Master's Programs

Applied Biology (M.S.)
Business Administration (M.B.A.)*
Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution (M.A.)
Curriculum and Instruction (M.Ed.)
Curriculum and Instruction - Higher Education Leadership (M.Ed.)
Educational Leadership (M.Ed.)
English (M.A.)
Geographic Information Systems Management (M.S.)*
Health and Human Performance (M.S.)
History (M.A.)
Mathematics Education (M.S.M.E.)
Nursing (M.S.N.)*
Reading Specialist (M.Ed.)
Social Work (M.S.W.)*
Teaching (M.A.T.)

Post-Baccalaureate Certificates

Health Care Management*
Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

Post-Master Certificates

Advanced Study in Educational Leadership
Educational Leadership

Doctoral Programs

Literacy Studies (Ed.D.)*
Nursing Practice (D.N.P.)*

Certificate of Advanced Study

Family Nurse Practitioner (Post-D.N.P.)*

Available online*

Connected

Salisbury's (and your future) professional alumni network is nearly 60,000 and growing.

The Next Step To Your Limitless Tomorrow

The next step to your limitless tomorrow can start right now. Just follow these steps to begin your application process:

- Complete the online application for graduate admission to Salisbury
- Submit the official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended
- Submit letters of recommendation (number varies by program)
- Submit test scores (if required by program)
- Track your application status via the Application Portal

Don't hesitate to contact the Office of Graduate Studies at 410.677.0047 or graduateadmissions@salisbury.edu with any questions.

Make
Make
Tomorrow
Yours

“The support from the professors at SU is tremendous. Their guidance helped build a foundation for me to excel as I take the next steps in my career.”

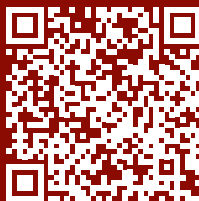

Jeremy Gencavage

Class of 2018

M.S. in Geographic Information Systems Management

Explore Graduate Studies at SU:

salisbury.edu/graduatestudies

SU is an Equal Opportunity/AA/Title IX university and provides reasonable accommodation given sufficient notice to the University office or staff sponsoring the event or program. For more information regarding SU's policies and procedures, please visit www.salisbury.edu/equity.

Salisbury
UNIVERSITY

Office of Graduate Studies
1101 Camden Avenue
Salisbury, MD 21801-6860

www.salisbury.edu