Emma Rutter
*Faculty Mentor – Dennis Leoutsakas, Communication

3G Quagmires

- 4:30-4:45 Microbial Diversity of Nitrate Reductase (napA and narG) Gene Fragments in Wetlands
Kathy Dunning, Morgan Pulsifer
*Faculty Mentor – Katherine Miller, Chemistry
- 4:50-5:05 Analysis of Denitrification in Wetlands: Focusing on Kinetics
Morgan Pulsifer, Kathy Dunning
*Faculty Mentor – Katherine Miller, Chemistry

- 5:10-5:25 The Politics of Salmon: An Examination of the Environmental Issues Concerning the World's Salmon Populations, the Political Tensions They Cause, and Possible Remedies and Compromises.
Steven Cennane

*Faculty Mentors – Sarah Surak, Political Science

3H STEM

- 4:30-4:45 Sweet Sorghum as a Source of Bioethanol
Benjamin Clark, Jordan Wilson

*Faculty Mentor – Elizabeth Emmert, Biological Sciences

- 4:50-5:05 *Genetic Variation in the Endangered Plant Ptilimnium nodosum: Maryland and West Virginia Populations*
Whitney Smith, Katelyn Blondino

* Faculty Mentor – Kimberly Hunter, Biological Sciences

- 5:10-5:25 Cleansing the Origami Dodecahedron of Thirds
Andrea Becker

*Faculty Mentor – Donald Spickler, Math and Computer Science

- 5:30-5:45 The Calculation of Standard Error in SPSS
Kristen Davis

* Faculty Mentor – J. Craig Clarke, Psychology

3I History In The Making

- 4:30-4:45 Attitudes on The Legalization of Marijuana
Trent Washington

*Faculty Mentor – George Whitehead, Psychology

- 4:50-5:05 Repose and Responsibility
Holly Baldwin

* Faculty Mentor – Elizabeth Ragan, History

- 5:10-5:25 Efficiencies....The Other 70%

Outstanding Research Mentor Award

The Salisbury University Student Research Conference Committee is pleased to announce the Outstanding Research Mentor Award at the poster session to be held from 6:00-7:30pm in the Wicomico Room (Guerrieri Center). This award celebrates faculty mentors who have proven excellent supervisors of student research or creative work. The 2013 Outstanding Research Mentor Award Nominees are:

Dr. Rachel Buchanan – Social Work
Dr. Jennifer Cox – Communication Arts
Dr. Linda Dwyer – Anthropology
Dr. Annie Lu – Computer Science
Dr. Lucy Morrison – English
Dr. Ryan Taylor – Biological Sciences
Dr. Thomas Tomcho – Psychology
Dr. Kristen Walton – History

Outstanding Student Research

Salisbury University's commitment to student research is evident in both the number and quality of the presentations at our annual student research conference. However, many of our students are being recognized for their work in off-campus settings. The following are highlights from Salisbury University students during the last year.

Student Publications

Corey Basch, Jameson Brinck, and Joaquin Ramos published "Synthesis of cis-octahydroindoles via intramolecular 1,3-dipolar cycloadditions of 2-acyl-5-aminooxazolium salts" in Journal of Organic Chemistry, (2012).

Ava Carcirieri co-authored (with mentor) "Examining body shame of college women by type of sexual victimization" in Modern Psychological Studies, (in press).

Nelson Dyer has a publication accepted with revision "Notes on the Diversity and Foraging Height of Carrion Beetles (Coleoptera: Silphidae) of the Nassawango Creek Preserve, Maryland" in Coleopterists Bulletin, (2012).

Bradley Macpherson co-authored (with Mark de Socio) "Gasoline station morphology on Virginia's Eastern Shore" in Southeastern Geographer, (2013).

Bradley Macpherson co-authored (with Mark de Socio) "Applying modern geographical techniques to cataloging and preserving historical economic geographies: Exploring gasoline station location patterns on Virginia's Eastern Shore" in Journal of Map & Geography Libraries, (forthcoming).

Camille St. Regis published "A Refuge from Chaos" in Queen City Writers: A Journal of Undergraduate Writing & Composing, (2012).

Student Presentations

Lauren Anderson, Amanda Biederman, Alexie Fox, and Stacey Miller presented "Womanly Worth: Female Education and Accomplishment in Austen's Novels" at the Maryland Collegiate Honors Conference in MD, March 2013 (Layne Hoffman contributed to the presentation but was unable to present).

Zakiah Baker led the Special Interest Group "Anti-Racism Activism" at the National Conference on Peer Tutoring in Writing, Chicago IL, November 2012.

Ava Carcirieri presented "Examining Body Shame of College Women by Type of Sexual Victimization," at the Eastern Psychological Association annual meeting, March 2013.

Amanda Chapo presented a poster entitled "Analysis of oxidative stress responses to mrck-1 RNA interference-treated Caenorhabditis elegans using fluorescent microscopy" at the National Conference for Undergraduate Research, La Crosse, WI, April 2013.

Chelsea Chmel presented "Smooth Seas Do Not Make Skillful Sailors" at the National Conference of Undergraduate Research, La Crosse, WI, April 2013.

Mallory Hagadorn presented "Not All Dung is Created Equal" at the Biodiversity: From Evolutionary Origins to Ecosystem Function, The Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA, October 2012.

Sean James presented a poster entitled "Identifying interaction partners of the Arabidopsis thaliana deubiquitinase-associated WD40-repeat proteins LRS1 and WDR20" at the American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology/Experimental Biology conference, Boston, MA, April 2013.

Alexandria Kinder and Nichole Egerton presented "For the love of a vampire: Do internal representations of attachment to romantic partners influence self-selected exposure to twilight saga media across two different phases of data collection?" at the National Conference for Undergraduate Research, La Crosse, Wisconsin, April, 2013.

Jesse Miller presented a poster entitled "Analysis of Arabidopsis plants lacking the WD-40 repeat protein p80" at the Undergraduate Research Symposium in the Chemical and Biological Sciences held at UMBC, Baltimore, MD, October 2012.

Simone Nemes and Jennifer Shaughney presented "An Inordinate Fondness for Scarab Beetles" at the Biodiversity: From Evolutionary Origins to Ecosystem Function, The Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA, October 2012.

Chris (Robert) Nicholson presented "Boulders on Delmarva? An investigation into the source and mechanism by which boulders were deposited on Delmarva" at the Pennsylvania Geographical Society's annual meeting held in Salisbury, MD, November 2012. This paper placed 2nd in the undergraduate student paper contest at the PGS meeting.

Melany Parlamen presented "An Examination of Official Sourcing and White House Opinion Dominance in National Newspapers Post-9/11" at The National Conference of Undergraduate Research (NCUR), The Northeast Regional Honors Conference (NRHC), and the Maryland Collegiate Honors Conference (MCHC).

Molly Phelan led the Special Interest Group "Graduate Student Tutors & Administrators" at the National Conference on Peer Tutoring in Writing, Chicago, IL, November 2012.

Molly Phelan presented "Collapsing Student Hierarchies: Assessing and Addressing the Needs of Graduate Students in the Writing Center" at the National Conference on Peer Tutoring in Writing, Chicago, IL, November 2012.

Joaquin Ramos and Nelson Elbers presented "Synthesis of cis-octahydroindoles from oxazolium salts" at the 15th Annual Undergraduate Research Symposium in the Chemical and Biological Sciences, Univ. of Maryland-Baltimore County, October 2012.

Jane Smith and John Jones presented "Violence in the Media" at the Eastern Psychological Association annual meeting, Pittsburgh, PA, March 2012.

Camille St. Regis presented "Impressions of the Future: Dreams in Paint" at the National Conference for Undergraduate Research, La Crosse, WI, April 2013.
