We’re Doing Downtime Wrong

Whether we can’t break the evening TV or social media habit, or we feel driven to make every moment super productive - we are robbing our brains of the true downtime needed to achieve calm, clarity and creativity.

Your Antidote to Imposter Syndrome

In this article, learn why social psychologist Amy Cuddy believes that increasing presence can help us beat imposter syndrome. According to Cuddy, presence gives us the ability to “comfortably express our true thoughts, feelings, values and potential.”

How to Steer Clear of Groupthink

Consensus-based committees or task forces may not be the best forum for fresh, new ideas to thrive. A study of four cross-functional teams from various industries led researchers to identify these three steps to avoid groupthink and foster innovation.
