- Lepre and Steering Committee Chairs have already agreed to share Strategic Plan with all faculty
- Report from LRAP
  - o Remains interested in being more involved in the process
  - o Hope to get written feedback from the Steering Committee
- Important for Senate as faculty voice to go on record
- Lots of consternation related to perceived secrecy of draft and impetus not to share
- Lack of transparency through the process
- Questions about inconsistencies in the draft plan
- Questions about where pillars came from
- Suggestion to include dates things were sent out to make it easier to locate them
- Concerns about word choice
- Concerns about regional impact and how that will be assessed
- Concerns about lack of Gen Ed
- Concerns about career/vocational emphasis over civic engagement and lifelong learning
- What is the value of the President's introduction and how will that be included in the final plan?
  - o Marketing, poses our students as customers
  - o Claims to exactly know who we are and what we do which is apparently debatable
  - o Whole student care
  - o Job market over liberal arts skills – skills that allow them to be employed 20 years down the road
  - o Putting a spin on the entire plan
  - o Is included in the current 2020-2025 plan on the website
  - o Should be consistent with public mission and values
