

SU President's 21-Day Anti-Racism Challenge

Day 2: Reflection Questions

- What feelings are coming up for you as you talk about racism and how it is woven in policies and structures in America?
- What policies, practices or structures can you identify that, when you give critical thought to, that have impacted People of Color in adverse ways?
- What are the benefits in understanding how racism can be embedded in ways that we do not recognize without great intention and understanding?
