

SU President's 21-Day Anti-Racism Challenge

Day 11: Reflection Questions

- As you reflect on the clip regarding the KKK, what thoughts and feelings are coming up for you as you think about in 2021 people still hate people that they don't know based on people's race, background and who they love, etc.? What are you willing to commit to doing that could begin to change this?
- Reflect and identify how America's educational system could assist in solving the issue of hate towards people based on identity. Identify ways Salisbury University could assist in solving this issue.
