

CELEBRATING & SAVING BLACK HISTORY IN SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES

29
FEB

GUERRIERI STUDENT UNION
WICOMICO ROOM

4:00
PM

Facilitators will host a discussion about the history of lynching in Maryland and its impact on African American civil and political rights. Light refreshments provided. This event is co-sponsored by the Salisbury University Chapter of the NAACP, the Fulton School of Liberal Arts, University of Maryland Eastern Shore Schools of Education and Department of English and Modern Languages.

Learn About
Africana Studies

