Activities and programs related to successful transitioning to University life represent an institutional commitment to create and foster an environment that values diversity while encouraging an appreciation and respect for differences. The Powerful Connections diversity orientation program is a vital link for new students of diverse backgrounds and their success at Salisbury University, A Maryland University of National Distinction.

Establish connections that last a lifetime!

The week’s activities include:

- Early arrival on Sunday, August 22
- Welcome reception
- Connect with upper-class students through the Peer Mentor Program
- Academic monitoring and coaching
- Become acquainted with the campus
- Understand academic expectations and social responsibility
- Learn about Multicultural Student Services and its program goals, activities and available resources
- Fun Night Activities: Grill on the Hill, PODS and other appropriate interactive activities
- Diversity team building
