

that deviate from the SUIT Security Program policies are required to submit a Policy Exemption Form to SUIT for consideration and potential approval.

Any attempt by personnel to circumvent or otherwise bypass this policy or any supporting policy will be treated as a security violation and subject to investigation. The results of the investigation may entail written reprimand, suspension, termination, and possibly criminal and/or civil penalties.