

Department of Modern Languages and Intercultural Studies

Fulton School of Liberal Arts

PROGRAMS

MAJORS

- French
- French Secondary Education
- Spanish
- Spanish Secondary Education

MINORS

- French
- German
- Spanish

About the Department

The Department of Department of Modern Languages and Intercultural Studies offers majors in French, Spanish and secondary education for both languages. Minor programs include French, German and Spanish. Their commitment to diversity and inclusion is also illustrated by their course content, which reflects a variety of perspectives and social topics, such as gender, sexuality, class, race, immigration and the problem of colonization. The department also offers introductory-level classes in less commonly taught languages such as Arabic, Japanese, Korean and American Sign Language.

Study Abroad Experiences

The department sponsors study abroad programs in Argentina, France, Martinique, Spain and many more. These programs run for five weeks or a semester. Although each program is different and activities may vary, students typically live with host families.

Students are also encouraged to take advantage of our Paris: City of Lights Internships, as well as our SALE (Spanish Applied Learning Experience) Internship with local businesses, volunteer organizations and schools.

What Fields Are Enhanced by Knowing More than One Language?

- Nursing and Pre-Med
- Social Work
- Education
- Humanities
- Business
- Scientific Research

Why Take a Language Course at SU?

- Small classes and engaging courses
- Intercultural competency
- Fun activities: Festivals, music, films, conversation hours, etc.
- Possibility to work with the community
- Become a member of the international foreign language honor society, Phi Sigma Iota

Career Opportunities

- Education
- International business
- Domestic and international NGOs
- Governmental agencies
- Social work
- Medical and legal professions
- Environment work

FACULTY

Professor

- Corinne Pubill, Ph.D. (Spanish)
University of California - Davis

Associate Professors

- Sally Perret, Ph.D. (Spanish)
University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign
- Aurélie Van de Wiele, Ph.D. (French)
Rice University

Assistant Professors

- Ethel Barja Cuyutupa, Ph.D. (Spanish)
Brown University
- Arnaud Perret, Ph.D. (French & Spanish)
University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign
- Ricardo Vazquez-Diaz (Spanish)
University of Pittsburgh

Faculty Emeriti

- Louise Detwiler, Ph.D.
Professor of Spanish
- Janet Dudley-Eshbach, Ph.D.
Professor of Spanish
- John Knowles, Ph.D.
Professor of Spanish
- Gerry St. Martin, Ph.D.
Professor of French
- Klaudia Thompson, M.A.
Instructor
- Arlene F. White, Ed.D.
Associate Professor of French

Phi Sigma Iota

Hispanic Festival

CONTACT INFORMATION

For information on the Modern Languages and Intercultural Studies Department:
410-543-6341

Did You Know? Studies have shown that bilingual employees can earn up to 20% more money per hour than those who speak only one language. — Financial Post

Make Tomorrow Yours

www.salisbury.edu/modlang

SU is an Equal Opportunity/AA/Title IX university and provides reasonable accommodation given sufficient notice to the University office or staff sponsoring the event or program. For more information regarding SU's policies and procedures, please visit www.salisbury.edu/equity.