

Physical Education Teacher Education Program Seidel School of Education

Are you interested in teaching? Salisbury University's secondary and preK-12 education programs can prepare you for the rewards of a teaching career.

Why Choose the Physical Education Teacher Education Program?

- Help students understand the importance of living a healthy and active life style.
- Teacher demand is projected to increase 4-5% from 2021-2031.*
- Many states require individuals be licensed to teach.*
- Health and physical education is required subject matter in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.*
- Most school districts pay a portion of the cost of graduate tuition for their teachers.
- Salisbury University programs are nationally accredited and approved by the Maryland State Department of Education.

* Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics. (2022). Occupational outlook handbook. www.bls.gov/ooh/

About the Program

The Physical Education Teacher Education Program prepares students for initial teaching certification in Maryland. Salisbury University offers bachelor's degree programs leading to PreK-12 teacher certification in physical education. The Physical Education Teacher Education Program also supports these University minors:

- Athletic Coaching
- Exercise Science
- Health Education
- Outdoor Education Leadership
- Social Studies

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dr. Yoojin Choi
Physical Education Teacher Education Program Coordinator
410-543-6177
yxchoi@salisbury.edu

Make Tomorrow Yours

[salisbury.edu/academic-offices/education/
secondary-and-physical-education](http://salisbury.edu/academic-offices/education/secondary-and-physical-education)

SU is an Equal Opportunity/AA/Title IX university and provides reasonable accommodation given sufficient notice to the University office or staff sponsoring the event or program. For more information regarding SU's policies and procedures, please visit www.salisbury.edu/equity.