

Community Access Card Request

Salisbury University Music Program

For security purposes, access cards are now needed to enter buildings on the campus of Salisbury University. As one of our community partners, we would like to provide you with a Community Access Card that can be used to enter certain buildings on campus.

Please note that Community Access Cards will need to be returned at the end of the designated term. There may be charges incurred for lost or stolen cards.

Please provide the information below, and return the completed form to the appropriate Salisbury University employee.
