EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (one page)

The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership advances the mission of Salisbury University and the division of Student Affairs by providing meaningful opportunities for involvement in campus and community life. These opportunities are designed to improve the quality of community life and to promote the development of responsible citizens and leaders.

2019-2020 Year in review

- Sea Gull Camp was offered for the first time in August 2019. Participation included 22 new students and 6 student leaders. This three-day retreat provided new students with time to meet others, team build, challenge their own physical limits and learn a bit about what it is like to be a Sea Gull. Many students became connected with other organizations including: Club Baseball, Squawkappella, SUTV, SOAP,
- Welcome Week with participation of nearly 900 students (bingo, hypnotist, game show, trip to OC, glow bowling and mini golf, Trolley event
- Earning Your Wings student group recognition program was implemented. The new system allowed students to choose the tier that best reflected their level of involvement based on the benefits they wanted to receive.
- Check lists were developed to direct our Point of Contact and Event Planning meetings with student leaders. These meetings allowed us to develop relationships with our direct contacts.
- Purchased University Tickets as a new system for online ticket purchases
- Changed our process to meet directly with event planners rather than Tuesday meetings
- Updated our windows to reflect what our department really represents
- Flock Party in collaboration with Alumni Relations was a huge success
- 2585 involved users on Involved@SU with a total 180 active organizations (including 147 student groups, GSU and Res Life)
- Added the multicultural sorority Delta Xi Phi and expanded FSL to include Multicultural Greek Council
- FSL Relationship Statement guideline the ongoing relationship between CSIL and Fraternity and Sorority Life. The work was accomplished through the collaborative efforts of representatives from all 4 councils and CSIL professional staff.
- Held monthly Blood Drives
- $109K was allocated to 67 clubs for 147 requests
- 3008 spaces were reserved by student orgs/chapters for meetings, events, practices, performances, exercise classes, speakers, movies by student groups
- 542 events were planned and promoted under the umbrella of CSIL (includes FSL, Block funded groups and clubs and orgs); 98 were cancelled after the March shut down.
- 240 events were posted and promoted through Involved@SU
- *Saferide transported over 13K students safely home (down 9K from last year)
- *Nest Level concert was scheduled as a joint effort with the Wicomico County Youth and Civic Center
- *Inaugural session of LeaderShape was scheduled for spring break with a total of XX students registered
- Revamped the event approval process making it a completely online process; all organizations required to post events on Involve@SU platform
- *Virtual Relay for Life raised over $7K to support American Cancer Society

*events impacted or cancelled due to COVID-19 related closing

Section I: Department Overview

Vision

Salisbury University students will be educated to connect learning and living, demonstrate personal and academic integrity, welcome diversity and inclusion, and bring honor to themselves and the University.

Mission

The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership advances the mission of Salisbury University and the division of Student Affairs by providing meaningful opportunities for involvement in campus and community life. These opportunities are designed to improve the quality of community life and to promote the development of responsible citizens and leaders.

Operational Goals:

The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership (CSIL) focuses on all aspects of student learning that extends beyond the classroom and includes:

Goal 1. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to create opportunities for student involvement and student development.

1. Facilitate leadership education for undergraduate, graduate and special population students to foster the development of marketable skills including but not limited to: written and verbal communication, critical thinking, and goal setting.
2. Educate students to recognize, challenge and overcome personal cultural biases.

Goal 2. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership embraces innovation to enhance student involvement.

1. Utilize Involved@SU to promote department programs (social media, daily email, texting)
2. Adopt technology which enhances the student leadership experience and administrative productivity for event planning, event promotion, succession plan development.

Goal 3. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to foster safe and inclusive communities among students, staff and organizations.

1. Encourage collaboration among student groups.
2. Train students to build relationships with campus partners
3. Encourage students to explore leadership opportunities and experiences beyond their comfort zone.
4. Develop opportunities to support school spirit.

Goal 4. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to motivate students to increase their effectiveness within their roles.

1. Provide trainings, resources and support for student organization leaders.
2. Designate budget for educational programs and risk management support.
3. Establish online system for forms, data collection, co-curricular transcripts and attendance tracking.
4. Provide training, resources and support for organization advisors.

Comments:

Attendance of 14,156 reflects students who attended events though Orientation (1800), housing (attending CSIL events – most likely duplicated) attendance at club events and CSIL sponsored events. At this point there is no way to calculate unduplicated numbers.

CSIL is requiring events to be posted on "Involved" platform, however, many organizations are not using the platform to check people in as attended. With new guidelines in place this fall, we will have more reliable data.
