OFFICE OF CONFERENCE PLANNING

We're Back!

What do you do when part of your job is selling the least needed and desired product during a global pandemic: a place for people to gather and be together? Answer: You rally your troops and push ahead. I'm incredibly proud and thankful to my staff for being resilient in the ever-changing world we experienced these last two years.

We did what event/conference professionals have been doing for years: We brainstormed, stayed flexible, organized, problem-solved, showed unbridled creativity and forged ahead.

When the threat of COVID-19 forced Salisbury University to cancel its traditional summer youth sports camps, we still wanted to provide assistance for the young athletes who usually populate those events on campus.

Working with SU-affiliated public access channel PAC 14, our team proposed a series of instructional videos, led by SU Athletics coaches, that could be shared with local youth, alumni and others.

Do you belong to an association that hosts its events or conferences on another college campus? Do you think it might be a good fit at SU?

The initiative attracted the attention of the Association of Collegiate Conference and Events Directors – International (ACCED-I), which recognized SU's efforts with its Outstanding Institutional Achievement Award: Single Event for 2021.

We provided a free opportunity for children everywhere to participate safely from their homes. The effort was well supported across campus, with many different departments jumping in to assist. We showed resiliency and ingenuity during a high-stress time. A special thanks to Athletics, groundskeepers, SU coaches and PAC 14.

We were very honored to receive this recognition, especially during such a stressful and uncertain time. However, we are so excited to be hosting overnight conferences again this summer.

HOBY Delaware 2022 Leadership Seminar

Salisbury University hosts the 2022 HOBY Delaware youth leadership conference for the first time Friday-Sunday, June 17-19.

HOBY Delaware is a part of Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership, founded in 1958 by its namesake, veteran actor Hugh O'Brien. With more than 500,000 alumni nationwide, the program has been recognized as one of the top youth leadership development organizations in the U.S.

Participants in each state's annual conference are high school sophomores selected by their individual schools or school districts. Many become catalysts for positive change in their homes, schools, workplaces and communities.

Volunteers from SU and the greater community are sought to assist with the program as group facilitators, medical staff, photographers and more. HOBY alumni especially are encouraged to apply.

To volunteer, email hobyleadership.de@gmail.com. For more information about HOBY Delaware, visit <https://hobydelaware.org>.

WOLC Youth Gospel Choir

Salisbury University hosts the WOLC Youth Gospel Choir on Sunday, August 7, from 6-9 p.m. in Holloway Hall Auditorium. Tickets are $30. The Youth Gospel Choir is part of the Word of Life Center/Le Centre De La Parole De Vie, with an emphasis on strengthening the Haitian community as its members fellowship and grow in faith.

WOLC also offers resources for all immigrants through the WOLC Immigration Services program. Services include residence green card, employment application, adjustment of status, becoming a U.S. citizen, interpreting and translations, and more.

Please visit www.wolcministries.org or www.wolcimmigration.com for more information.
