The Multicultural Alliance is comprised of representatives from executive boards of clubs and RSOs with the main purpose of creating a safe space to pursue common goals, share information and to create events that require joint effort among participating clubs and student organizations.

The Interfaith Alliance is a conglomerate of student-led, faith-based organizations on campus. They joined together under the alliance to promote interfaith cooperation during some of the most controversial days in their lifetimes. We believe that leading by example is the best antidote to the group alienation and xenophobia that threatens our values today. As an interfaith organization, providing a place where students of all faiths can meditate in peace is a primary goal.
RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

African Student Association (ASA) mission is to support groups of students of whatever descent in learning more about the issues pertaining to Africa in any way possible. They also organize various cultural and promotional events to build community and foster collaboration amongst African and non-African students as well as those interested in Africa.

The mission of the Asian and Pacific Islander Club (APIC) is to promote awareness of the cultures and traditions of Asians and Pacific Islanders. They are open to everyone who is interested in having fun and making new social connections while learning more about different cultures.

Black Student Union (BSU) focuses on the community and campus life and making the best possible experience for black people at the University. Black Student Union also focuses on building the best students and leaders on campus. They want our student leaders to be the voice for advocacy for students on student affairs as well as educating all ethnicities of students on black culture and bringing the black experience to campus.
