Visit

The most important step in the admissions process is to visit Salisbury University’s campus. It is the best way to know if Salisbury is the right fit for you. Learn more about all we have to offer at a weekday information session, followed by a student-guided tour. You can also experience the SU difference at our open house program, held on select Saturdays throughout the year.

Why SU?

Salisbury University is a school big enough for you to reach your dreams, but small enough that you’ll never be lost in the crowd. At SU, you’ll find award-winning grounds and facilities, you’ll meet life-long friends and enjoy fun activities, and you’ll be part of a campus making a difference in its community and around the globe.

You’ll find all of this at SU, but first and foremost, you’ll find an exemplary learning community. There are support networks to help you achieve, real-world opportunities that prepare you for life beyond SU, and quality programs taught by leaders in their disciplines who care about your evolution as a scholar and an individual. You’ll find an array of experiences and research opportunities that allow you to explore what matters to you most while showing you how to make your passion your life’s work.

You’ll also find a university worth your investment. We understand that financing your education is one of the most important life decisions you and your family face. Be assured that SU is a strong investment. Nationally ranked year after year for quality academic programs and great value, Salisbury University is the smart choice for you.
