THE WAVE

Say Hello to the Latest Edition of the Salisbury University Alumni Association's Newsletter "The Wave"

In celebration of Salisbury University's Centennial, we are thrilled to introduce our updated newsletter. We hope to inspire a new era of engagement at SU, share updates, stories, and events that connect you with the vibrant SU alumni community.

Centennial Alumni Spotlight

Benjamin Toms '10

What are some of your favorite Salisbury memories?

I loved playing intramural soccer and squash, joining the War on the Shore, hanging out in Red Square, and dining with friends in the dining hall. One magical memory was a snow day when we all bundled up and had a huge snowball fight between University Park and University Village, then just hung out around campus. Those moments made Salisbury feel like home. I started as a student business leader but realized my true passion was working with kids. So, I went back for my master's in elementary education and now teach in Manhattan, NY. Salisbury helped me find a new beginning after high school and taught me the value of hard work. I made lifelong friends and memories I'll always cherish.

'Wall Street Journal,' College Pulse Again Rank SU Among 'Best Colleges in the U.S.'

Salisbury University is one of the top 400 higher education institutions in the nation for setting its graduates up for financial success.

"While we're proud of every national recognition Salisbury University receives, this one is especially meaningful because it highlights the success of our graduates," said SU President Carolyn Ringer Lepre. "Rankings like this demonstrate the lasting impact of an SU education on the lives and careers of our alumni."
