Margi Helschien

Margi Helschien '81 graduated from Salisbury with a B.A. in leisure studies with a minor in psychology. Having her first ever college class take place outside under a tree was all she needed to stay and learn valuable life lessons, specifically one professor who said "people can be many things." A varied career path has led Margi to establish America Connected, a nonprofit that brings peoples and nations of the world closer together.
