Matthew Anderson

Matthew Anderson '14 chose to attend Salisbury to play Division 3 basketball. An injury changed his trajectory, and he went on to earn a B.A. in conflict analysis and dispute resolution, with a minor in business administration. A life-changing internship during his junior year with the Honorable Norm Conway '65 set Matthew on his career path, where he is now a lobbyist working with the New Jersey Legislature, all while earning his law degree.
