

THE WAVE

Say Hello to the Latest Edition of the Salisbury University Alumni Association's Newsletter "The Wave"

In celebration of Salisbury University's Centennial, we are thrilled to introduce our updated newsletter. We hope to inspire a new era of engagement at SU, share updates, stories, and events that connect you with the vibrant SU alumni community.

Centennial Alumni Spotlight

Emma Brackin '13

How did being involved in campus life and academics at Salisbury shape your journey?

I loved serving on the SOAP board from sophomore year through graduation. My first Gullfest as a volunteer, helping build the stage and meeting Jason Derulo, hooked me on event planning! Now, I'm a lead Montessori guide teaching and using leadership and organizational skills I learned on the SOAP board. Choosing Salisbury—encouraged by my dad, an alum—was the best decision I made.

SU Announces New Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Major

"It was one of the most requested majors by prospective students that we did not offer," said Dr. Michael Scott, dean of SU's Richard A. Henson School of Science and Technology. "Demand from employers in the region for students with expertise in biochemistry and molecular biology has continued to increase, particularly in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic. Because the faculty at SU have a long history of teaching excellence in these fields, the logical step to respond to these needs was to develop the new program."
