- (6) Salisbury University students who are Pell Grant-eligible or have an expected family contribution (EFC) of $5,846 or less may be eligible to receive an additional $1,500 in HEERF III financial assistance during the 2021-22 academic year. The additional financial support is available to all undergraduate and graduate students who are eligible to participate in the Federal Title IV Financial Aid Program and who are enrolled at SU for the Fall 2021 term. The support is available to resident and non-MD resident students. Students can use the grant for any part of the cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to Coronavirus. The funds will be awarded in addition to any scholarships or financial aid students have earned from SU. Additional funds will be distributed through an application process. The application will be available during the fall 2021 semester.

- (7) Availability of Financial Aid to students will be communicated to all students via a press release and will also be posted on the following website:
