Biographical History: J. Marshall Stewart (1899-1977) was born in Baltimore and served in varying capacities until he took up employment in 1952 for Victor Lynn Lines as Vice President and General Manager and relocated his family to Salisbury. He later served in the same capacity for the Delmarva Division of Eastern Freightways. In addition to his professional life, Mr. Stewart served as Chairman of the Ocean City Convention Hall Commission and on numerous other varying commissions and boards. Mr. Stewart was married to the former Margaret Sjolander and had six children.
