

HOW DO YOU GAC?

We are working with the architects of the Guerrieri Academic Commons to assess how students use the building and what changes we could make to improve it. Please take the survey at: tinyurl.com/GACuse

THANKSGIVING HOURS

The Guerrieri Academic Commons will be closing at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, November 21 and will reopen at noon on Sunday, November 26. Please note the 24/7 space will NOT be open during this time.

ACCESSIBILITY ROOM

Room 115 in the GAC is the Libraries' Accessibility Room. It has a Kurzweil Reader, JAWS software, and ZoomText. Access is granted by the Disability Resource Center in the Guerrieri Student Union, Room 263.

Need Help With Your Research?

Looking to do a research project or write a seminar paper or thesis? Our Sage Research Methods database can help you figure out research methods for almost any discipline, whether you are majoring in nursing, business, social work, the social sciences or history. Learn about the different methods used by each discipline through videos and text. Access case studies demonstrating various research methods. Plan a research project using the Project Planner. Unsure what statistics to use? Figure out which statistical test is appropriate for your project using the "Which Stats Test" feature.

The Nabb Center

The Nabb Center on the 4th floor of the GAC is best known for its amazing collections about Delmarva, but it includes other collections. University Archives houses the records of SU and its people, including student organizations and other items related to students' experiences. The Nabb Center also has one of the largest collections of film press kits in the country; manuscripts, such as diaries, scrapbooks, and letters; and graphics from all over the world, such as the Spanish Civil War ration coupons/poster to the left. And it is free to SU ID holders! Open M 10-8, Tu-F 10-4, and Sa 10-2.

Did You Know ...

That in 1863 Abraham Lincoln proclaimed the fourth Thursday in November as a national day of Thanksgiving after years of lobbying by Sarah Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book and Magazine? The complete run of the magazine, 1830-1896, is available in Accessible Archives, linked from the A-Z Database List on the SU Libraries' website.
