

COFFEE BAR HOURS

The Chesapeake Bay Roasting Company (the coffee bar in the GAC) will be open extra hours during finals week, with some free samples of baked goods: M 12/11-Th 12/14 7:30 am-11 pm, F 12/15 7:30 am-4 pm, M 12/18 7:30 am-11 pm, Tu 12/19 7:30 am-3 pm.

LOCKERS

Two types of lockers are available on the first floor of the GAC. The horizontal lockers have electrical outlets in them and are for short-term use, re-charging devices. The vertical lockers are for longer-term use, except for seven set aside for Laptop Return. Starting in January, you will be able to sign up at the Library Service Desk to check out vertical lockers for the entire semester (locks provided by the SU Libraries).

RETURN YOUR BOOKS

If you have books due at the end of the semester, don't forget to return them before you head off for winter break!

LGBT Life with Full-text

Is a database giving access to the most important literature about lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender issues. It provides full-text access to more than 140 journals and more than 160 books and reference materials as well as indexing and abstracting numerous additional information sources. It can be found on the A-Z Database List on the SU Libraries' webpages.

24/7 throughout the GAC

All public areas of the Guerrieri Academic Commons will be open 24/7 starting the evening of Tuesday, December 5, and continuing through the end of finals on December 19. This includes the space that is normally open 24/7 (on the first floor, the southside lounge and café; on the second floor, four group studies and café). Spaces that will be open 24/7 during this time only are the Pit, the lobby, most classrooms, all group studies, and open areas off the atrium on all floors. The Library Service and IT Help Desks will be open their usual hours.

Did You Know ... The founder of Kwanzaa, Maulana Karenga, was born as Ronald Everett in Parsonsburg, right here in Wicomico County? As a scholar of African American studies, his work can be found in Academic Search Complete and other databases available on the A-Z Database List on the SU Libraries' webpages. We also own a copy of his book, Introduction to Black Studies, available in the third-floor stacks at call number E185.K27 2002
