VOICES AND VOTES

You've probably seen the Smithsonian traveling exhibit, "Voices and Votes: Democracy in America," on the first floor of the Academic Commons. It is eye-catching (and a little noisier than we'd like, truth be told, since we don't want to distract people who are studying). But did you know there's more? Up on the 4th floor, in the Thompson Gallery, you will find our local version of the exhibit, created by our staff. It's called (cleverly!), "Voices and Votes: Democracy on Delmarva," and features local stories of rebellion, resistance, and perseverance. The 1st floor exhibit will be available until mid-October and is open when the GAC is open. The 4th floor exhibit will be available all semester and is open M-F 10 am-4 pm.

Mobile Self-Checkout

The SU Libraries have a new app for mobile self-checkout. It's called Meescan and allows you to check out most books at the SU Libraries right on your iOS or Android device. You can download the app in your phone's store or from our website. After you check out a book, be sure to de-sensitize it at one of the Meescan stations around the library (they are found in the Pit on the 1st floor, outside the elevators on the 3rd floor, and in the south-side reading room on the 3rd floor). For more information, you can see the posters by each Meescan station or go to our website at <https://www.salisbury.edu/libraries/services/mobile-checkout.aspx>, where you will also find a video demonstrating how to use it. But it's simple!

Library Service Desk

On the first floor of the GAC, this is where to go to:

- Borrow books (if you're not doing mobile self-checkout) and other materials
 - Borrow course reserves
 - Borrow laptops, iPads, and other tech items
 - Pick up items borrowed from other libraries
 - Return all of the above
 - Get questions about library resources and services answered
- Pick up color prints
 - Check in for the presentation practice room
 - Get markers and erasers for the whiteboards
 - Turn in and retrieve Lost and Found items from the GAC

Did You Know? You can find a list and links to all our databases (many of which include full-text articles) on the A-Z List at libraryguides.salisbury.edu/az.php. The databases are available on campus computers as well as from off-site 24/7; you just have to log in using your SU ID.
