

HCM: Hiring for New “Work Study” Students

Overview

This job aid explains how HCM Action Initiators can hire new “Work Study” student workers in Workday.

- The recommended browser for accessing Workday is Google Chrome. However, Mozilla Firefox and Apple Safari may also be used.

Considerations by Institution

- Prior to initiating the Workday process, have all information on the Pre-Hire Data Sheet filled out. The Data Sheet is available on SU Workday website.
- Obtain the Federal Work Study Approval Form from the Financial Aid Office
- Reference the Payroll/HR Processing Calendar on the SU Workday website to ensure that you are initiating the process with enough time for it to complete before the employee’s effective date, which should be the start of a pay period.

A blue 'Review' button is highlighted with an orange border.

HCM: Hiring for New “Work Study” Students

51. While the entire document is editable, the areas in green are pre-populated based on the information entered throughout the above process and should be reviewed for accuracy.

52. Edit the sections highlighted in orange, primarily addressing the following:

- a. Adding the number of hours the student is expected to work.

Note: This should be the same as the hours entered in step and CANNOT be more than 25 hours

- b. Noting if there has been any Dual Employment

Notes:

- This information should be available to the initiators through the Pre-Hire Data Sheet
- If there is no Dual Employment, add an “X” in between the brackets () of section 7 of the contract

5. Workweek: The Student Worker’s workweek will be an average of hours per week . Exceptions shall be specifically agreed upon by both parties. The Student Worker shall be paid only for hours that he/she actually works. Where applicable, any hours in excess of 40 hours per week are subject to overtime provisions. The University reserves the right to establish the exact hours of any work schedule that the Student Worker is assigned to work. You will be paid only for hours actually worked. It is your responsibility to report your hours to your supervisor.

6. Benefits: The Student Worker shall not be entitled to the benefits afforded Regular State Employees, such as retirement, health insurance, salary increments, unemployment insurance, etc. However, the Student Worker shall be covered by Worker’s Compensation and may be eligible for leave benefits (or compensation therefore) in accordance with the Maryland Healthy Working Families Act.

- a. If the Student Worker will be working 30 hours per week or more for greater than 90 days, they are eligible for minimum essential health benefits coverage with contractual/variable health insurance rates as per the Employer’s Mandate of the Affordable Care Act (ACA).

7. Dual/Multiple Employment: The Student Worker shall notify the University of dual/multiple employment within the University or for a State of Maryland Institution or Agency. If the dual/multiple employment status changes, the Student Worker shall immediately notify the University.

Please select one of the following then list all other SU, USM or State employments.
